

WORLD RISK ADAPTATION FUTURES – SOCIAL PROTECTION

Global trends in Social Protection

CASE STUDY PRESENTATION BY THE PARTICIPANTS – PART 1

supported by the "World Risk and Adaptation Futures Summer Academy" programme

23 September 2020

Organized by

In cooperation with

The concluding part of this webinar series aims to showcase 13 different approaches to understand the climate change and social protection nexus from across the globe. These pioneer cases studies have the potential to be lighthouses of enhanced academic, policy and practitioner understanding in this field.

TIME

Central Europe
16:00 – 17:30h

Jakarta
21:00 – 22:30h

REGISTER HERE

<https://eu.eventscloud.com/2020summeracademyonline>

AGENDA

In this first part, we will be showcasing six different case studies:

TIME SLOT		PRESENTER		TITLE OF PRESENTATION
Bonn	Jakarta
1	16:05 – 16:15	21:05 – 21:15	 Omer Aijazi University of Toronto, Canada	An inclusion and empowerment approach to climate action
2	16:15 – 16:25	21:15 – 21:25	 Sifullah Khaled Glasgow Caledonian University (GCU), London, UK	Integrating climate risk insurance with social protection programs: Perspectives of Bangladesh
3	16:25 – 16:35	21:25 – 21:35	 Roxana Leitold University of Cologne, Germany	Assessing the willingness of firms to participate in collective flood adaptation. Scenario-based field experiments in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam
4	16:35 – 16:45	21:35 – 21:45	 Israel Orimoloye University of the Free State, South Africa	Space-based drought disaster risk and climate change assessments: Strategies for environmental conservation
5	16:45 – 16:55	21:45 – 21:55	 Sayanti Sengupta Hochschule Bonn-Rhein-Sieg, Bonn, Germany	The role of cash transfer interventions for climate change adaptation
6	16:55 – 17:05	21:55 – 21:05	 Irfan Ahmad Rana National University of Sciences and Technology (NUST), Islamabad, Pakistan	Social protection in disasters and climate change: A bibliometric analysis
	17:05 – 17:30	22:05 – 22:30	 Moderator Christian Barthelt Munich Re Foundation	Feedback and discussion