

SESSION A1:

Opening event: Why talk about planned relocation?

11th September 2023, Monday

15:00 – 16:30 CEST

Why is the Climate Academy focusing on planned relocation – and what do we mean by this?

What contributions can the Climate Academy make to discussions and negotiations on planned relocations in global fora?

Where does the subject of planned relocation (and its alternatives) currently sit within global agendas and institutions?

Organized by:

In collaboration with:

Speakers

Welcome address

Renate Bleich, Chair, Munich Re Foundation

Keynote

Anthony Oliver-Smith, Professor Emeritus of Anthropology, University of Florida

Agenda setting panel discussion

Donna Lagdameo, Officer-in-charge, Vulnerability Subdivision, UNFCC
Koko Warner, Director of Global Data Institute (GDI), IOM
David Durand-Delacre, Senior Researcher, UNU-EHS
Rachel Harrington-Abrams, Senior Climate Researcher, King's College London

Moderated Discussion and Q&A

Himanshu Shekhar, UNU-EHS