

SESSION A6:

Centering community in adaptation vs. relocation decision-making

13th September 2023, Wednesday

17:30 – 19:00 CEST

What does meaningful ownership of relocation decision-making and planning look like?

Who do we mean when we say “community”? Who represents and speaks for communities?

Sometimes, even initiating a conversation about relocation can be harmful and divisive – when and under which conditions should such conversations be initiated, and by whom?

Organized by:

In collaboration with:

Speakers

Panel Discussion

Robin Bronen, Alaska Institute for Justice, USA

Rights, Resilience and Community-led Relocation

Alex Arnall, University of Reading, United Kingdom

Sostina Takure, ACT Alliance Zimbabwe

Moderated Discussion and Q&A

David Durand-Delacre, UNU-EHS